UNDER THE TELECOMMUNICATIONS ACT OF 1996

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on July 24, 2013, Verizon Delaware LLC (“Verizon”) and Voxbeam Telecommunications, Inc. (“Voxbeam”) (collectively, the “Applicants”) filed a joint application requesting that the Delaware Public Service Commission (“Commission”) approve a negotiated Interconnection Agreement (“ICA”) . Via Order No. 8361 (April 23, 2013), the Commission granted Voxbeam a conditional Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity (“CPCN”) in PSC Docket No. 12-542. The pertinent provisions of the ICA are:

- The purchase of unbundled local loop elements, including recurring prices of $10.07, $13.13, and $16.67 for Density Cells 1, 2, and 3 respectively;
- Provisions related to dialing parity, number portability, and directory and database listings, including Voxbeam’s customers’ primary listings in the same manner as those of Verizon’s customers’ listings in directories and directory assistance;

- The resale of Verizon telecommunications services for a wholesale discount of 20.0% or 16.0 % (depending upon whether Voxbeam provides its own operator services);
- The provision of 911 services to all customers;
- The ICA indicates that the rates for unbundled network elements, call transport, and termination, and the wholesale discount, may be replaced by new rates at a latter time.

Any person who wishes to protest or to comment upon this application must do so in a written document filed with the Commission and served upon the Applicants on or before August 19, 2013. Comments should focus on the criteria for review set forth in 47 U.S.C. §252(e)(2)(A) and whether the ICA is consistent with applicable state law, regulation, or policy.
